

From: eevans1
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/18/01 6:33am
Subject: Microsoft

It's about time this so called "case" against Microsoft be dropped, stopped or considered irrelevant. They did nothing more than offer THEIR customers a good way to use the internet. The people who did the most complaining have long since gone their own ways anyway. You keep monkeying with software and well end up paying more for it, just like most of the other things the government has "helped" us with.
E. R. Evans